Boardworks is a publisher of a complete range of software designed for whole class teaching on interactive whiteboards and projectors. With a growing range of software offering extensive coverage of the International curriculum, Boardworks ready-made lessons are packed with interactivity to motivate all your students.

This is a one-time purchase that provides a lifetime site license. Once installed on your school network, you can use it on every Windows computer in your school. Download delivery of Boardworks presentations is our standard service – CD-Rom copies will only be sent upon request and will incur an additional cost of £40. Doodle online subscription services are excluded from this statement.

Boardworks also produce products for Primary School teaching. For more information about these, please email stuart.alway@boardworks.co.uk.
